

I beleive that deregulation of Braodband service would be determential to the quality service provided by independents. I current receive DSL service from an independent that is of higher quality and more reliable than what I was previously receiving directly from SBC. I beleive this difference would vanish if Broadband service were removed from regulation